What is a CVS?

A CVS, or Centre for Voluntary Services, is a voluntary organisation set up to support and develop local voluntary groups and promote community action.

All CVS are registered charities, many have a long history of taking the lead in new services within the community. CVS are not part of any Government or local Council.

We welcome new and existing voluntary groups as members and can offer you the following services and support:

Supporting local groups development Access to expertise and specialist help e.g. HR, H&S, Running a charity, directory database of local groups, room and equipment hire.

Volunteering For voluntary or community organisations support identifying and recruiting volunteers or help and advice with volunteer policies and safe practice. Also for individuals looking for information on volunteering and local opportunities.

Somercotes Children's Centre collecting food donations to give out to disadvantaged families for Christmas.

Befriending Service Supporting the elderly and isolated people of Amber Valley with volunteers to prevent social isolation and loneliness.

Bespoke Befriending (for Amber Valley Residents) This charged for service offers extended support, choice and flexibility for residents who need Company.

Home from Hospital A FREE short term service to ensure that you feel safe and confident when returning home from hospital.

Training Help, advice and courses for new and existing community groups and volunteers.

Funding Assisting community groups with reference materials, information and advice on constitutions and policies.

Contact & Representation To extend the reach of community groups between one another and with statutory organisations.

Direct support through:

Help at Home Enabling the elderly or disabled to live independently in their own homes by providing domestic and gardening support.
